

I can see no valid reason to restrict satellite from offering local services on their system. Let them compete! The citizens of the US are not served by their goverment trying to protect the vested interests of the members of the NAB